

UCLA ZIMAN CENTER FOR REAL ESTATE RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES

UCLA ECONOMICS

The mini-conference, co-sponsored by the Ziman Center's UCLA Rosalinde and Arthur Gilbert Program in Real Estate, Finance and Urban Economics and the UCLA Department of Economics' Albert Family Fund Seminar in Applied Microeconomics, supports research in applied microeconomics. Researchers engage in research addressing a wide variety of important issues including: Changes in the "returns" to education, the effects of economic crises in developing countries; the effects of welfare reform; the efficacy of job training programs and early intervention programs for disadvantaged children; the reasons for rising health insurance costs; effects of government regulation in the market for services; social security reform; rising inequality and the economic consequences of changes in the family.
