<sup>1</sup> Based on GMAC Reporting Standards: Domestic Students: A citizen or permanent resident of the country in which the program is located.

<sup>3</sup> This methodology allows for students who identify with more than one race or ethnicity to be represented in each category with which they identify. A single student may be counted in two or more categories. Number reported for each category above divided by the total number of U.S. Students. Because a single student may be counted in more than one category, the sum may exceed 100%.
