

UCLA Anderson Executive MBA

	Bi-Weekly	Monthly	Blended
Schedule and Instruction Format	Bi-Weekly classes meet twice a month on campus on Friday through Saturday	Monthly classes meet once a month on campus on Friday through Saturday. Additional instruction and coursework is delivered asynchronously (videos, discussion forums, etc.)	Blended classes meet twice a month on Friday through Saturday for live instruction, alternating one Fri.-Sat. on campus and the other Fri.-Sat. on Zoom
Class Schedule	Friday, 4:00 – 9:00 p.m.; Saturday, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.; electives on Sunday, 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. One Friday per quarter class starts at 10:00 a.m.
EMBA Electives	Once a month on Sundays of class weekends, Summer once a month (Sat. or Sun.) and August Block Week
Opening Residential	1 week in August (time off work required with lodging and meals included)
International Business Residential	1 week in September going into second year (time off work required with lodging and meals included)
Capstone Thesis	6-month group project completed in the second year. Choose between three options: Strategic Management Research consulting project, Business Creation Program or Entrepreneurship Through Acquisition

Curriculum

Leadership Curriculum	Core Course Topics	Specializations	Sample Elective Courses
Leadership Foundations Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Inclusive leadership - Ethical decision making - Transformative leadership 20+ hours one-on-one executive coaching 40+ hours leadership focused content EMBA Leadership Speaker Series	Statistics Economics (micro/macro) Organizational Behavior Marketing Accounting Finance Operations Strategy International Business Residential Strategic Management Research or Business Creation Program (Capstone Thesis)	Leadership Global Management Entrepreneurship Finance Marketing Technology Management Corporate Governance Entertainment * Healthcare * Real Estate * Social Impact * Sustainability certificate*	Negotiations Management Communication Business Law Corporate Finance Management of Technology & Innovation Entrepreneurship and Venture Initiation Business Plan Development Brand Management Corporate Governance

* Specialization requires classes outside the EMBA schedule, typically on weeknights.

International Business Residential

Travel abroad with your classmates and faculty for a one-week residential course.

Required

Global Electives

Global Immersion

One-week residential course, travel with students from all UCLA Anderson MBA programs

Global Exchange

One-week course at a partner international university with in-country students

Asia Perspective

One-week residential course with the UCLA-NUS EMBA program Mumbai, India

Optional on a space-available basis; additional program fees apply

International Study Opportunities

Sample list of courses, subject to change.

Executive MBA Application Requirements

- No GMAT/GRE/EA exam required
- Transcripts, diploma certificates and degree certificates
- 2 essays
- 2 recommenders
- TOEFL/IELTS english placement exam (if applicable)